Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement

Introduction

Lloyd Morris Electrical Limited works in the construction sector producing control panels, system design and installation of electrical control panels. Lloyd Morris Electrical Limited is committed to acquiring goods and services for its customers without causing harm to others. In so doing, Lloyd Morris Electrical Limited is committed to supporting the UK Government's Action Plan to implement the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights.

This Statement is designed to satisfy the requirements of Part 6 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015, by informing our employees, suppliers, other third party partners and customers about Lloyd Morris Electrical Limited and its Statement with respect to modern slavery, human trafficking, forced and bonded labour and labour rights violations in its supply chains.

Although, as a business, Lloyd Morris Electrical Limited turns over far less than the threshold for businesses required to publish a statement under the Act, Lloyd Morris Electrical Limited Board of Directors considers that its customer's spend through its supply agreements warrants a statement on the risks inherent in our supply chains and the steps we are taking to address them, in line with Lloyd Morris Electrical Limited practices in sustainable and responsible procurement.
